– for agreement (enclosed)
Enclosed is the judges' feedback for the park's gold winning entry in the 2018 Small Parks category of the North West in Bloom competition. Members are invited to receive and consider the feedback. Shevington in Bloom have asked to view the feedback once the Parish Council have considered it and have said that, even though they will not be entering NWinB in their own right this year, they are willing to prepare the park for entry once again in the Small Parks section, if the Parish Council are minded to enter.
Members are invited to agree the best way forward.
- 1066 Memorial Park: Heritage Lottery Funding Plan
– for consideration & agreement (enclosed & to follow)
Earlier this month the Finance Committee delegated the preparation of a pre-application letter to the HLF to a small working party. However, as it has since been discovered that the HLF are currently re-structuring their grant programmes and at the end of January will be publishing a new framework. Existing programmes are now closed to new applications. Hence, the preparation of a pre-application letter has been postponed until the new information is available. The Chairman is currently preparing a paper in connection with a Heritage Lottery Funding Plan. This will follow once it is ready. An advisory from the HLF is enclosed.
Members are invited to consider and agree the best way forward.
- 1067 Permission Request: Photoshoot – for approval (enclosed)
The Council have recently received a request from a Fashion Photography student for permission to carry out a photoshoot in Shevington. It is enclosed. The Council may only give permission for the activity to take place on Parish Council property.
